

2019 Chamber Awards Nominations Now Being Accepted

The 2019 Chamber Award nomination process is now open. Below you will find several awards for which you may nominate an appropriate person, business or organization.

Distinguished Western Star Award: The Western Star award is presented to an individual in the Williston area for promoting Williston as a great place in which to live and work through personal and professional efforts over a period of time. This individual shall exemplify a positive attitude toward our city and be recognized for his/her constant efforts to promote our people and resources. It is the highest award presented by the Chamber.

Patriot Award: The Patriot award will be presented to an individual, business or organization living in the area who is recognized by peers for promoting the military. They should exemplify a positive attitude toward the military and be recognized for his/her continuous efforts to promote the military and related projects.

In addition to the traditional awards of the Western Star and the Patriot Award, there are several other opportunities to recognize community leadership and involvement. All are centered around the Chamber's mantra of connect, engage, grow, and lead.

Chamber Connector Award: Recipient best represents the values of networking and connecting Chamber membership with the community. This individual or organization stands out as an ambassador for the Chamber and the Williston Area, participates in Chamber events, and adopts the Chamber's principles throughout community.

Community Engagement Award: Recipient best represents the values of community engagement through participation in events and committees in both Chamber and non-Chamber activities. It is presented to an individual or organization in the Williston area for outstanding volunteer service and positive influence throughout the year.

E. Ward Koeser Advocacy Award: The recipient of this award will have demonstrated leadership traits and qualities in the policy and government arenas at the local, state or federal levels. This individual or organization supports the core values of the Chamber and is involved in the advocacy efforts to support a growing Williston business community.

Williston Leadership Award: This individual or organization has taken a leadership role within their organization, neighborhood or community, and encouraged the growth and development of others. The recipient will have demonstrated willingness to grow and learn, while helping influence others to make a positive impact in our community.

Champion of Agriculture Award: This award recognizes an individual or business who has demonstrated outstanding leadership in the agricultural community. Recipient will have made significant contributions to the agriculture industry in the MonDak Region through stewardship of land and livestock, advocacy, application of technology, or development of new products, methods, or ideas.

Generation Next Award: The recipient of this award represents the future of the Williston Business Community. Recipient will be a young professional who has emerged as a business leader; demonstrating excellence, creativity and initiative in his or her career and community. The recipient of this award should be between the ages of 21-35.
